

Overall conference rating

Would you recommend this conference to other people?

Overall rating out of 10

No rating less than 7 out of 10

Do you plan to attend this conference next year

Feedback

- "I thought it was well run, the content was great and that everyone did a fantastic job. There were plenty of opportunities to network and the content was extremely interesting."
- "Having attended many industry based conference over the years I thought that all round the Pitcher Partners Conference was very well put together."
- "The Pitcher Partners BRIS Conference had an ideal range of presenters and topics over the two days. Well worth attending."
- "The PP BRI Conference hits the mark at all levels, dynamic keynote speakers, recent and relevant experiences of collapses/frauds to better prepare us going forward, A-Grade location, and networking at a very social level. See you next time."
- "The conference was extremely topical and the presenters exceeded expectations."
- "This conference was of the highest quality with impressive presenters covering interesting material."
- "The Pitcher Partners Conference was time well invested in our close partnership. The strong networking opportunity, update on technical issues and practical stories all made the conference memorable, very beneficial and an important part of the 2011 year."
- "An excellent event. High calibre presenters providing insight into the industry as well as the broader business context in which we and our clients operate."
- "The conference was a great success. Pitcher Partners showed themselves to be excellent hosts and event organisers. The sessions were very informative and the breaks allowed for seamless and natural networking opportunities."
- "It was a great event, with many high profile and high ranking presenters, including Dr John Hewson and Mr Terry McCrann, who were highlights for me. The professional developments and insights I received were very valuable, and the networking will undoubtedly assist me in the future. Very worthwhile to attend!"
- "A well put together and run conference. Good overall content relevant to what is happening in the insolvency world today and great insight to some recent past matters. Well worthwhile attending for the content and the opportunity to network."
- "The speakers and topics at the Pitcher Partners Business Recovery and Insolvency Conference were very relevant to today's business climate and provided an excellent range of updates and practical knowledge that insolvency practitioners will find invaluable in enhancing their practice."
- "This was an interesting conference held in a friendly atmosphere and it encouraged meeting new people. It was helpful in meeting Pitcher Partners staff from various locations and learning about their capabilities."
- "One of the many advantages of the conference was the broad range of quality speakers and presentations giving a valuable insight to where the economy and business sector challenges are to be faced in the near future."
- "A very practical and most informative conference with opportunities of networking."
- "I have gained more from this conference than the hundreds I have been to before."