PAUL WESTON JOINS PITCHER PARTNERS SYDNEY BUSINESS RECOVERY AND INSOLVENCY SERVICES TEAM

Pitcher Partners has appointed Paul Weston as partner to its Business Recovery and Insolvency Services team in Sydney.

Mr Weston has wide experience in corporate and personal insolvency. Joining Horwath Sydney in 1985, he worked exclusively in insolvency before transferring to Deloitte in 2007.

In addition, he has worked in business investigation and turnaround across most industries and is on the Board of the Turnaround Management Association.

“I am pleased to announce Paul’s appointment as a partner in our Business Recovery and Insolvency Services team as of 1 July 2009.

Paul’s experience will strengthen the Business Recovery and Insolvency Services team, in particular adding bankruptcy expertise to the corporate services already offered by Pitcher Partners.

His appointment to Pitcher Partners also gives him an opportunity to reconnect with the middle market,” managing partner Wayne Wilson said.
